“We are not human beings having a spiritual experience; we are spiritual beings having a human experience”.

Pierre Teilhard de Chardin

This is the essence of spirituality. How we apply our spiritual essence shows how we value life ... Recognizing the power of spirit is what healing, living and spirituality are all about. I believe that we have a pipeline to universal intelligence and wisdom from which to draw...through our intuition, which can be tapped through meditation, prayer, relaxation, awareness, the development of high self-esteem and a reverence for life.*

The Global Healing Alliance* #1 mission is to help clients walk their journey and assist them to make informed client-centered health decisions.

Current health care systems are failing in major categories. Our GHA goal is to help correct this limitation by opening a broader, inclusive framework of care where individuals are treated equally, part of a family and member of the community. The recipient is the focus of intention and attention with culturally specific integrated approach rather than medical hierarchy or disease symptom care.

#2 GHA's mission is to promote a comprehensive wellness & natural health plan rather than the current medical disease/symptom approach to care and education, thus keeping health cost down.

Current medical diagnostic and treatment costs are rising and out of control. Adding more money to the current practice of cost of professionals, tests and drugs is not the solution. Rather we must create natural innovative way to succeed.

#3 GHA promotes wellness, natural health and energetic care and education provided by qualified certified professionals and organizations in collaboration, as equal partners alongside the existing system of illness directed care.

For clients to make informed decisions we need to present options to help the natural health - wellness journey versus what is present focus on symptoms and illness care and education.

We are all unique manifestations of life. We are divine in our origins. We are also the recipients of what has gone before us, which gives us vast resources from which to draw. I believe that we also have a pipeline to universal intelligence and wisdom through our intuition, which can be tapped through meditation, prayer, relaxation, awareness, the development of high self-esteem, and a reverence for life. This is how I reach my spirituality. *

FAMILY CAMP AGENDA & MISSION:

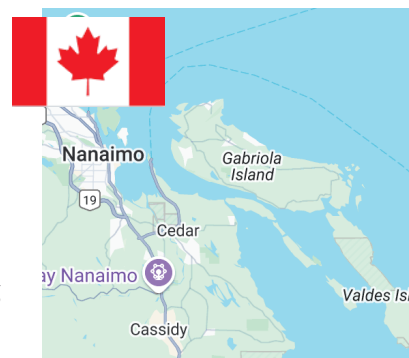

Strengthening Individuals, Families & Supporters
(Caretakers & Health Professionals)

GOAL: Creating sacred space for therapeutic communication, family growth and bonding in relaxing fun-filled outdoor, indoor and online experiences.

DESCRIPTION: This event is for individuals and families of any constellation who are awakening to living life fully with respect for one another and all of Creation. If you are looking for your tribe, this is it!

Come share love, light and laughter being with others who will connect, share and describe their experiences growing individually and collectively.

Honor yourself, your family and others by taking time to be together in a deeply meaningful and celebrative way. Dance, sing, drum, storytelling, plan and live in love, respect with congruent communication. Remove energetic blocks that are draining you, your family, your relationships, holding you back from reaching your full potential.

WHO CAN COME? ALL are welcomed!

- Single persons interested in exploring their family heritage & messages
- Couples, children, teenagers, care takers, siblings
- Single families, extended families, combined same sex families
- Multi-cultural, multi-national, multi-generational individuals & families
- Aunts, uncles, elders, middle agers and in-betweeners
- Professionals who work with children, families and organizations.

OBJECTIVES: The participants will be:

1. Making contact between and among those present, online, in memory and on the other side.
2. Healing family dynamics through individual, family and group sessions.
3. Exploring creative expression to enhance harmony and wellbeing.
4. Evaluating the impact of the 1st, 2nd, 3rd, and 4th birth on you today and moving forward.
5. Examining cultural understanding impacting your life and beyond through frequency modulation.
6. Shifting energy and celebrating through ceremony, ritual, song and movement.

7. Sharing resources / tools to uplift and empower through love, light and laughter.

ACTIVITIES

- Storytelling, nature walks, animal & plant connections.
- Enhancing family unity, sculpting & family reconstruction
- Opportunities for individual, group & family healing
- Expanding the vision of Virginia Satir with Energy Therapies
- Creating change through family mandalas, drumming, Tibetan bells, singing & dances
- Creating new possibilities for family health from caregivers and health professionals
- Exploring throughout our time together, consciousness shifts from being to becoming.

QUESTION TO ADDRESS & REFLECT:

1. What is important to you regarding this family camp exploration?
2. What are your physical, emotional, mental and spiritual roots?
3. What are your current physical, emotional, mental and spiritual roots now?
4. Do you fit in your family constellation comfortably today?
5. If not, what do you hope will change? If yes, what do you hope to build more of?
6. What goals do you want to accomplish being in this family camp experience?
7. At the end, where are you with what happened from this lived experience?

At the Third Joint Congress we will deal with the pain and suffering our service men and women are experiencing as they answered the call to serve. As a healing community we are aware of the sacrifice and are present to help serve all of those affected by this global problem. This includes the entire family; spouses, and children. Lives have been dramatically effected and the needs are great. We are here to help move forward with a circle of love and light to ease trauma, pain, and suffering.
