PRACTICE EDUCATION RESEARCH

Our goal is to bridge spirituality and health through connecting with others.. Widening the circle of contacts with like-minded individuals can help to deal with loneliness, isolation and loss of hope. Together we can uplift the soul, receive inspiration to deal with our unique situations through Heart2Heart and Soul2Soul energetic connections.

The world is filled with extreme challenges that impact all of us. These issues include the following: power and control from ego based leadership, loss of autonomy, feeling helpless and hopeless to make a difference with these extreme challenges worldwide. Blocking diversity and not considering needs of ALL people are front and center including using war, dishonesty, and manipulation by the wealthy including those who want vindictive strategies to hurt others to achieve self-serving agendas.

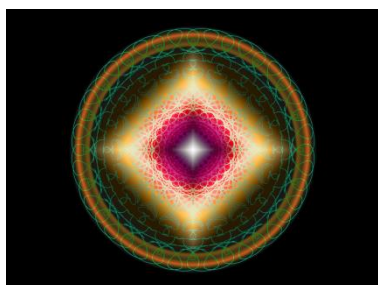

We will be bringing in the light from different channels of connection, communication and caring to change the trajectory of feeling disempowered to make a difference with values that uplift. Come and join us for Heart-Centered Learning using the 3 C's: Community, Communication and Caring.

We will tap into the spiritual vibrational heritage created through practice, teaching and research through four connected organizations Energy Medicine Partnerships, Akamai University, AU's Virginia Satir Center and Global Healing Alliance.

The energetic presence of worldwide indigenous healers and colleagues will be tapped into to give you the opportunity to experience heart 2 heart and soul 2 soul awakening and attunement that uplifts the vibrational heritage imbedded within each of us.

The full schedule of the presenters throughout time for the three days will be coming soon once the presenters confirm their time frame. So stay tuned and ready to hope, skip and jump in new ways that capture the essence of multi-dimensional health and healing.

Through the circle of love connecting on earth and through spiritual dimensions we will be shown the light, love and laughter engagement within, between and among that resets our energetic currency.

We will call on the energy of the mentors, colleagues and friends of Dr. Bulbrook who worked with her over decades primarily in person in multiple countries.

We have published the information on our websites online and attached the information you may use to indicate your desire to attend this historical event. Please send your response and inquiries by email to: info@akamai.university. Early bird costs have been extended to March 16 with big savings. Visit the website to view details, registers and see the soon to be updated agenda. <https://www.akamai.university/events-on-line.html>

Take this opportunity to enjoy the celebration, achievements and updates of the history of these four interconnected organizations including the founding leadership updates and faculty, alumni and students innovations that have left their legacy mark worldwide.

We will offer closing spiritual events that help empower and connect us Soul2Soul and Heart2Heart!

Hope you can join us!

Warm regards and best wishes,
Dr. Mary Jo Bulbrook,
